

SelfServ ATMs — the opposite of one size fits all

Your customers demand access to their cash in the simplest, most secure way possible. NCR SelfServ cash dispenser ATMs can provide that service while also helping you to:

- Transform your ATM network with a reliable, cost-effective cash dispenser ATM for any location
- Generate revenue with off-premise deployment and by offering your customers services like bill payment
- Increase operational efficiency with NCR's express recovery, self-healing technology and dual roll two-sided thermal printing
- Bring your brand closer to your customers at off-site locations
- Deliver the best possible experience to your customers by providing the next generation of customer interactions like using our touchscreen interface and a wide range of software driven transactions

No matter what your needs, we have the right ATMs to suit your business objectives. Let us show you.

“Cash remains the vehicle for nearly half of transactions, primarily small value consumer point-of-sale transactions.”

—McKinsey's U.S. Payments Map (March 2013)

NCR SelfServ 14
