

NCR HARDWARE SOLUTIONS

Hardware that works hard

Innovative, fit-for-purpose integrated hardware technology

NCR hardware solutions provide innovative, integrated technology that meets the rigorous demands of the petroleum and convenience retail industry. Our tools are designed to maximize simplicity and speed in every aspect of your operations. From fuel to foodservice, our cost-effective hardware solutions offer efficiency, reliability and security while helping increase sales and profit. NCR's comprehensive hardware suite includes point-of-sale terminals, electronic payment controllers, kitchen display systems, fuel controllers, servers, peripherals, and more.

Grow revenue and profits

Improve customer throughput with our reliable hardware solutions. Our terminals are built for a minimum 10-year lifecycle and connect to other store systems, mobile devices and peripherals.

Maximize uptime

Help eliminate technology-related service interruptions with innovations like fanless cooling, solid state electronics and industrial power supplies. Our hardware is built to withstand the continuous usage and 24x7 operations required by the petroleum and convenience retail industry.

For more information, visit www.ncr.com, or email sale.pcr@ncr.com.

Minimize convenience store disruptions

Install hardware systems quickly and maintain them with minimal impact to operations. Plus, our comprehensive support and maintenance solutions mean we can troubleshoot and resolve your issues quickly.

Protect your business

Protect your customer payment card data with our encrypted magnetic stripe readers and use back office PC equipment that prevents data loss while physically securing your system. Our P1230 and P1530 POS terminals come with unique features, including a built-in UV Light Module to check for counterfeit cash and fake driver's licenses.

Improve speed of service

Serve customers rapidly, process orders accurately, and increase foodservice productivity with fully integrated hardware from NCR. Our easy-to-use touchscreens and exceptional reliability help you deliver swift, accurate service to your customers.
