

I AM NCR STICKY MEDIA™

Labelling Solutions

NCR Sticky Media is a cost effective and efficient solution to identify and track orders

NCR Sticky Media is a unique solution combining a receipt and a label into a one-step process that is a more cost effective and operationally efficient manner to identify and track transactions. Designed initially for the hospitality industry, NCR Sticky Media is a concept which has multiple possibilities across multiple industries including: date coding, in-store pickup, promotional offers, returns, shelf labelling and temporary tagging.

In today's competitive fast food environment, speed and accuracy are essential to maintaining work flows and keeping customers happy. Every second counts and with ever increasing consumer choice and customization, food service operators are facing constant pressure to fulfill orders faster and faster. Manual labelling methods such as traditional labels, tape, stickers, and staples and paper receipts add time to order processing and can lead to inaccuracies and waste.

The unique design of NCR Sticky Media makes labelling orders easier and more accurate anywhere food is prepared. The result is higher customer satisfaction and the potential of extra revenue per store. Apply NCR Sticky Media on multiple types of packaging to identify custom or to-go orders, label custom beverages, mark online and catering orders, seal boxes or containers, label bulk prep items, and print nutritional information.

Simpler processes and improved productivity

Most labelling methods have too many materials and steps and are difficult for crews to handle. NCR Sticky Media eliminates multiple consumables like loose receipts, tape, stickers, markers or labels. It is easier to handle and stays in place, allowing staff to stay focused and fulfil orders faster in busy kitchen work environments. Your crews will be more productive and have higher order throughput.

Increased accuracy and reduced waste

Some operators are reporting up to 15 percent errors as mistakes get made when receipts fall off or staff is distracted with processes that are time consuming or manual.

With NCR Sticky Media, kitchen order identification, beverage labelling, drive-through, take-away and catering processes are improved as orders are fulfilled faster with less errors. What is more, higher order accuracy helps reduce food waste by up to 30 percent.

Higher customer satisfaction and additional profit

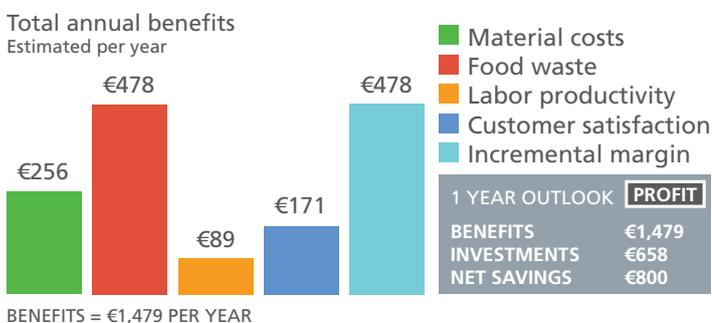

NCR Sticky Media will save you money through improved productivity and higher order accuracy. As lines shorten and customer satisfaction increases you will not only improve your costs but also have the potential of extra revenue per store. Overall, NCR Sticky Media could benefit a quick service restaurant approximately € 800 (eight hundred euros) per store per year.
